

The Salt Riot

Dead Star

The Salt Riot is a passion trio that comes on strong as big as stadium rock, that is somehow as intimate as an LP from your favorite 90's childhood heroes. Coming from diverse regions such as England, Alaska, and Washington, the band formed in Seattle in its inception. Their music demonstrates the members diverse knowledge of musicianship, discipline, and individual musical backgrounds that have been influenced by Classical, Jazz, Funk, and Rock to create a eclectic sound known as The Salt Riot.

Their first full-length Dead Star was engineered and produced by innovative veteran David Miner and recorded at Chartreuse Muffin Studios in Seattle, WA. The songs "Would You Walk?" and "Giver" were engineered and produced by Jack Machin at Mighty Maverick Studios in Seattle, WA.

Julia Vidal (vocals, lyrics, guitars, violin, and synths)
Jack Machin (bass, producer, engineer, mixer)
Valdemar Huguet (live drums, percussion)
*Nick LaPointe (studio drums, percussion on Dead Star)

Available on Amazon, iTunes, Spotify, and CD.
